JOHN BARLEYCORN.
Oh, barleycorn, John barleycorn,
I think 'tis time to quit:
A hundred times since I was born
You've made me hit the grit!
I planned the cash, you had the fun,
You did doleful son-of-a-gun!
Oh, barleycorn, John barleycorn,
I've heard the night owl howl;
In deep and lonely depths forlorn
The mournful howlings howl.
Where snakes and monkeys cut for deal
And jack-lanterns dance a reel!
Oh, barleycorn, John barleycorn,
You make a fellow pose
Most picturesque while you add
With sunset tints his nose.
But while he mourns for his last time
You keep in spirits all the time!
Oh, barleycorn, John barleycorn,
You promise joy and bliss;
But your delights are in a horn
And mostly go amiss:
Of all deceivers you stand first,
The blackest, blindest and the worst!
Oh, barleycorn, John barleycorn,
The matter I've resolved,
I declare, this blessed morn,
Our partnership dissolved;
You are a fraud, I've proved it so,
And that is all I want to know.

ANSWER TO A QUESTION.
S. A. Douglas and J. C. Breckinridge
Nominated at Baltimore.

That branch of the United States Senate which holds its sessions in the Fifth ward has had for some days agitated by a discussion as to when and how and where Stephen A. Douglas was nominated by the Democrats for President in 1860.
THE LEDGER has been appealed to,
and, as THE LEDGER is always at the service of its friends, it will briefly summarize the events that led to the nomination of Mr. Douglas.

In the first place, Buchanan's Administration, then in power, was hostile to Douglas, even as far back as his memorable canvass with Abraham Lincoln in Illinois, although Buchanan owed his own nomination to Douglas.

Mr. Douglas had been voted for in the Democratic National Conventions of 1852-56, in the latter of which, held at Cincinnati, he received on the sixteenth ballot 121 votes, but being opposed to the second round, he withdrew in favor of Buchanan, who had received a majority, thus securing the latter's nomination.

At the Charleston Convention in 1860 on the first ballot he got 1454 votes out of 2924 cast.

On the twenty-third ballot he got 1524 votes, which was not only a large majority of votes cast, but was also a large majority of those entitled to representation.

It will be remembered that the Charleston Convention, after a prolonged session, adjourned to Baltimore.

When it reassembled in that city, Mr.
Douglas received on the first ballot 1731 votes out of 1904 cast.

On the second ballot he got 1814 out of 1941 votes, and his nomination was then made unanimous.

The delegates who opposed Douglas
"seceded"—it was quite popular to "se-cede" in those days—and held in Baltimore a side-show convention, nominating for President John C. Breckinridge, who was then Vice-President of Buchanan's Administration.

In the election Mr. Douglas received only 12 electoral votes, though his popular vote was 1,075,157.

He died in Chicago June 3d, 1861.

Dr. H. M. Marsh has returned to Danville.

Miss K. Stanley Niland is in Cincinnati

Andy C. Sphar of Fern Bank was here

George H. Simonds of Cincinnati was here yesterday.

Miss Mayne Moss is on a visit to her

John D. Bridges has returned to Portsmouth after a visit to his mother, Mrs. A.
M. Bridges.

E. A. Robinson has gone to West Virginia to quell the rioting miners with his good cigars.

Hi. Here, Bro. Marsh!
The Ripley Washboard Factory is loaning
We understand one hundred dozen washboards, and the letter concludes with it and they are in great demand, too.—Ripley Box.

Newcomb. The owner of THE LEDGER declares that the wheels of industry are stopping and that the country is going to

This is easily accounted for, Brother:
the men being idle, the women are compelled to take to the wash.—Ripley Box.

"WEEP NOT."
"My Son, For You Yet Shall Live and Prosper."

Again "The Tramp" has got himself into an embarrassing predicament, and this time with the police authorities of the city.

A local appeared in yesterday's LED-GER, stating that "those in authority" refused to tell the fine of a prisoner in Tuesday afternoon at the Police Court.

This was a mistake, and for making it we are oh, so sad! We shed heavy tears of regret for making it, and correct it with the same pleasure we would sit down to a bacon and egg breakfast with a large pitcher of ice water after a night "with the boys."

All those in authority were not consulted. In fact, no one in authority was consulted. "The Tramp" called upon Henry Wadsworth, who holds the position of Clerk of the Police Court, and asked him to deliver information, and he refused to divulge the secret, for such it seemed.

He not only refused to tell "The Tramp" the amount of the fine imposed, but talked about keeping him out of the Courtroom and "holding judgment" against him until "father put him out."

Henry made all kinds of threats, and when they were carried out, in connection with others made yesterday afternoon,
"The Tramp," even as a corpse, could not,
and will not, be recognized by his Circle of friends. "Excuse these tears. Even the thought of the punishment is terrible."

But now here comes some news for our readers: Henry Wadsworth is not in authority at the City Police Court. In fact, he has nothing to do with it at all.
He is only a "private clerk" to Judge Wadsworth, and has no right to tell what is done in Court.

Neither Judge Wadsworth nor Chief of Police Ott refused to give "The Tramp" the information sought. Neither of them will help proclaim his action, and could not be found next.

This correction we gladly make.
But this does not seem to be the great objection of Chief Ott. He wants only the cases that he thinks proper to go in print.

With all due respect for Mr. Ott and his position, we say that THE LEDGER is published to give the news, and whether a man has 10 cents or $10 he will be written up. We play no favorites.

If any citizen of Maysville, friend of Justice, Chief or anybody else, is brought into the Police Court and fined THE LED-GER feels it its duty to tell its readers of such, and those gentlemen, as public officers, have no right to suppress the item.

The more prominent the prisoner, the more interesting the item. See!

Judge Wadsworth seemed to entertain the idea that he could suppress any part of his work with the city he sees fit. He cannot. He is an officer of the people, and what he does in such capacity the people have a right to know, and if THE LEDGER will help proclaim his action, they shall be known to those interested.

THE LEDGER wants the facts, and that is all, and no part of the work in the Police Court can be suppressed by Judge
Wadsworth or anybody else.

Any arrests made will be published, and if the office making it will also be published if it can be secured.
Now is the time to subscribe.

sence of a bumper house at the People's

SIXTEEN MINISTERS
Upheld the Organisation of the A. P.
A. at Memphis, Tenn.

The Protestant Ministers of Memphis, arches of the Episcopalians, have issued an open letter advocating the principles of the American Protective Association, and deprecating the attacks made on that organization by the secular press in the last few months.

The signers of the epistle are sixteen in number, and compose the Protestant Pastors' Association.

They deny any purpose to criticize the spiritual faith or belief of the Catholic Church, and attack it solely on the ground that the Pope and his hierarchy are inconsistent with the oath of allegiance required to be taken by all naturalized citizens of the United States, and to be in opposition to the Federal Constitution.

Statistics are cited to show that the increase of Catholics in this country is comparatively much greater than that of Protestants, and the letter concludes with an appeal to all citizens who desire to prevent the Catholic control of all educational institutions supported by the Government to vote against the election of Catholics to positions of power and influence, and for the election of persons who will refrain from Catholic immigration.

The Catholics of Memphis are a rich, numerous and influential body, and a great power in politics.

If it comes to a fight between them and the Protestant Pastors' Association, there will be important changes in the political complexion of the entire state.

SCARING AN ENGLISHMAN.
How a Bad Man From Bitter Creek Was Handcuffed Down To.

Detriot Free Press.—There was a very green Englishman at Butte City, Mont., who was talking about purchasing land near by for a horse ranch, and as he circled around the depot the half dozen drummers who happened to meet there put up a job on him. One of them borrowed a coat and hat of a rancher, took the cartridges out of his revolver, and with the weapon held aloft in his hand he suddenly jumped into the waiting room and yelled:

"Whoop! I'm a cantankerous old fighter from the headquarters of Fighting creek! I'm half-hoss and half-alligator! I'm down on everything that walks on two legs, particularly Englishmen. What's the matter with you blooming Briton who called me a liar?"

"What's the row about?" inquired the Englishman, as he came to a halt and faced about.

"Whoop! I've hit in three wars and kept a graveyard of my own the rest of the time," shouted the terror, as he danced around. "Down on my narrow-bones and beg my pardon if you want to live two minutes longer."

"Not if I know it!" drawled the Briton, cool as ice, and he squared off and landed a thumper on the drummer's nose, which piled him over among the stacks of pelts and dazed him so that he couldn't speak for the next five minutes. We had to hold the "foreigner" to keep him from following up, and when the drummer had been sponged off and brought to his senses—a baggage truck and held his nose and reflected for a long time. Then he remarked:

"When you fellows get through being tickled perhaps you can explain at just what stage of the game the belt run off."

LABORS HEAVY LOSSES.
Some Startling Figures Presented
By Michigan Factory Inspectors.

The Michigan Labor Bureau has made a thorough comparative canvass of the present condition of labor now and one year ago.

This canvass shows some startling figures.

During the period between September 1st and February 1st a total of 2,066 factories in all parts of the state were inspected and canvassed for information regarding employment.

Of these, 377, comprising some of the largest and most important, were idle altogether.

Of those reported in operation, 1,117 were running full time and 573 on short time.

In those running on short time there is shown a loss of labor of 82,927 hours per week.

The number of men laid off now is 48,725.

This is more than 43 per cent. of the whole number reported as employed.

There has been an average reduction of wages in factories visited of 9.5 per cent.

During the five months from September to February there has been a loss to labor in the 2,066 factories inspected of 1,762,000 working days of ten hours each.

THE LEDGER telegraphic service told all about the big Republican gains in New York and in Vermont. The Bulletin's didn't.

THE windows of the Postoffice may have accumulated a little dust, Brother MARSH, but under Republican rule the books were mighty clean.

In our Democratic friends are, as they say, opposed to "class legislation," why are they in favor of an income tax? If that isn't class legislation THE LEDGER would like to ask Brother MARSH if he has read JOSEPH H. DONSON's letter?

THE very fellows who are now so vigorously "grating" for an "income tax" were loudest in their denunciation of that system of taxation when it was levied for the suppression of the Democratic rebellion. Well, that shows consistency, at least.

Hi, there, Brother MARSH, to please you the dates are attached to these "howls." It is not deemed necessary to add the "1894," but if you insist on it, that will be done; and if possible we'll state the exact hour of the day when the "howls" were howled.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3d.—The firm of A. LEEK & CO., the well known canned goods and dried fruit dealers, has been attached for over $4,000 at the instance of the Pacific Can Company.

PUNEVILLE, PA., March 6th.—The Puneville Iron Works, which usually employ between three and four thousand men, have closed down. Lack of orders is the cause.

MILLVILLE, MASS., March 5th.—The Lawrence Felt Mill has shut down indefinitely.

WILKESBARRE, PA., March 5th.—The Wilkesbarre Ledge Works, the largest plant of the kind in this country, will put its working force on half time tomorrow. The reduction is due to uncertainty as to Tariff legislation.

MUSKOGEE, MISS., March 5th.—Because of an increase of hours from nine to ten and a reduction of wages, 150 packers and mallets employed at mills A, B, C and D of the Washburn-Cosby Flour Manufacturing Company are on a strike.

BUTLER, O., March 5th.—Coal miners in Sub-District No. 6, numbering 7,000, who have been out on a strike since January 15th on account of reduction in wages from seventy to fifty-one cents per ton, will return to work tomorrow pending a final settlement.

New Bedford, Mass., March 5th.—The Mount Washington Glass Works have suspended their operations that on March 12th their shops will become non-union, with a 10 per cent. reduction in wages.

SENEGAMBA, PA., March 6th.—Employees in the locomotive shops of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad at this point were placed on eight hours time. The gangs are divided, each man working every alternate day.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

CARBON $1.99 per doz. at Parker's.

Our rate prices on everything at Hopper & Co. the Jewelers preparatory to moving March 1st. We have only a few more spoons left. The greatest bargains yet offered.

"The people of this vicinity insist on having Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and do not want any other," says John V. Bishop, of Portland Mills, Indiana. That is right. They know it to be superior to any other for colds, and as a preventive and cure for croup, and why should they not insist on having it. 50 cent bottles for sale for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

THREE days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ills.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right today and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well once." 50 cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

Persons desiring to acquire the A. P. A., or those interested in the purposes of the Order, will please address Box 488, Mayville, Ky.
